Notes from the boss.....

It's always a good feeling to go into a home game with a win behind you and, thanks to Steve Elliott's goal at Newport on Tuesday night, I am sure everyone's morale will have been lifted.

This afternoon, however, we can expect a real test from Leyton Orient. They are top of the league material, without a doubt, and this match will show us how far we have come in these last few weeks. Thanks to some hard work and the odd piece of good luck we have put together an encouraging series of results. It is vital now that we knuckle down to the job and keep the run going.

Looking at the League table you can see that things are very tight at the top. What we need to do is to get among the breaking pack and keep the pressure on the other clubs in the leading group. The right result this afternoon will do us a power of good.

I have been pleased the way the trend has changed in recent weeks. At one stage earlier in the season I was concerned that we were giving away too many goals in the closing minutes of matches. That was one of the biggest problems we had last season if you recall. Now it has all turned around. At home to Exeter and Swansea and inbetween at Rochdale we scored goals in the last five minutes of the games to pick up valuable points.

That shows that we are in good condition to last 90 minutes. Obviously I have been disappointed that we have gone behind in games and left ourselves in a position where we have had to rescue points. But it is pleasing to think that if we go a goal down the players still keep their heads up.

I felt sorry for the kids on Monday night when I watched them beaten by Hull City here in the first round of the F.A. Youth Cup. Our boys did everything but score and their young keeper pulled off some terrific saves. He is one to watch for the future I'm sure. But you had to feel sorry for our keeper Ryan Price. He could do nothing to prevent the goal - and that was the only decent shot they had on target all night.

LEYTON ORIENT

The Club was founded by clerks of the Orient Shipping Line, later to become the P & O Group. They played their first matches at Millfields Road and as they grew, they moved to a larger ground where two railway carriages provided the dressing room facilities. The Club entered the London League around 1896 and as they increased in strength, gained Professional status and played in Division Two of the Southern League. In 1902 the Club moved back to Millfields in Clapton and after three years gained entry to the Football League playing in the Second Division. They moved again in 1930 to Lea Bridge Road and then to their present ground in Brisbane Road. They have played under three names, Clapton Orient, which became Leyton Orient in 1946, which changed to Orient in 1966 and finally reverting back to Leyton Orient in 1987. In 1961/62 Orient finished runners-up in the Second Division and were promoted to the First, but the stay was short lived. During the Sixties, the Club suffered mixed fortunes and they slipped into the Third Division. It was in 1970 that they returned to the Second Division and in 1977/78 they made Club History by reaching the Semi-Final of the F.A. Cup, losing 3-0 to Arsenal. After a mixed 1981/82 season, Orient were relegated to the Third Division after twelve years in Division Two. Orient have played in the Fourth Division since season 1985/86 and have twice narrowly missed returning to the Third Division.

VISITORS PEN FILE

STEVE CASTLE — Began his career with Leyton Orient as an Apprentice in 1982 and signed as a Professional in May, 1984. Made his League debut against Bradford City in September, 1984. Scored the penalty that gave the Club a draw in the last seconds of the F.A. Cup match with West Ham United, last season.

ALAN COMFORT — Began his career with Queens Park Rangers as an Apprentice and gained England Youth honours whilst there. Was transferred to Cambridge United in October, 1984 after a brief loan period with them. Joined Leyton Orient in March, 1986 and was named Player of the Year at the end of the 1986/87 season.

KEITH DAY — Graduated to League Football via Averbury F.C. Played over 100 games for Colchester United before signing for Leyton Orient in July, 1987.

KEVIN DICKENSON — Served his Apprenticeship with Tottenham Hotspur before joining Charlton Athletic. He made over 60 appearances for Charlton before being released at the end of the 1984/85 season and joined Leyton Orient where he was voted Player of the Year in his first season.

KEVIN GODFREY — A product of South London Schools Football. He signed as an apprentice in the Summer of 1976 and became a Professional less than a year later. Kevin made his League debut against Oldham in January, 1978 and has just completed his Testimonial Year for the Club.

KEVIN HALES — Signed for Orient after being released by Chelsea in 1983. To date, Kevin has made over 130 appearances for the Club.

LEE HARVEY — Joined Leyton Orient as an Apprentice on the Youth Training Scheme in 1983 and has gained England Youth honours on several occasions. Signed as a Professional in December, 1984. He made his League debut against Cambridge United whilst still an Apprentice and has since made over 20 first team appearances.

TERRY HOWARD — Joined Chelsea as an Apprentice and joined Crystal Palace for a brief loan period. Terry signed for Leyton Orient in March, 1987 and made 12 appearances, scoring two goals for the Club since his arrival.

ALAN HULL — Alan joined Leyton Orient from non-league Barking F.C. during May, 1987. He was Barking's top scorer with 45 goals last season.

PAUL SHINNERS — Began his career with Gillingham after joining them from Fisher Athletic. He signed for Leyton Orient after being given a Free Transfer by Gillingham at the end of the 1984/85 season. Missed a good deal of last season through injury.

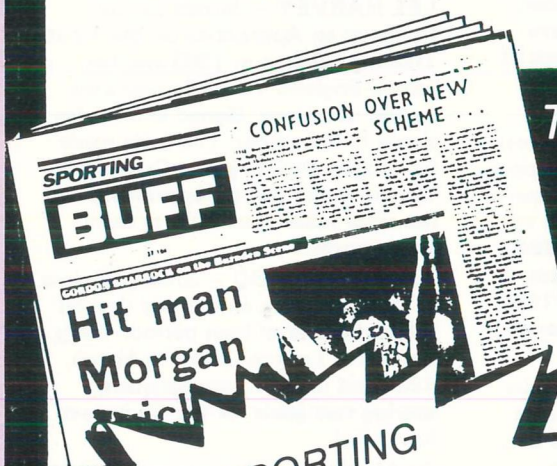

MARK SMALLEY — Mark began his career as an Apprentice with Nottingham Forest and has also played for Birmingham City on loan. He joined Leyton Orient in March, 1987.

MATCH REPORT

AROUND THE LEAGUES

Arsenal snatched an 89th minute winner at Newcastle last week and enjoyed leadership of Division 1 - if only for 24 hours. That was until Liverpool had their say in Sunday's live match with their rivals Everton and made amends for the Littlewoods Cup hiccup.

Manchester United and Nottingham Forest faced up to each other at Old Trafford in front of 44,669 - biggest crowd of the day - and settled all square at 2-2 thanks to dream goals from both sides. Third placed Q.P.R. came from behind at Norwich to finish 1-1.

In Division 2 Bradford City kept up their winning run to stay top at the expense of Crystal Palace. Second placed Middlesbrough kept up their challenge after overwhelming Shrewsbury at Ayresome Park 4-0 where Slaven recorded a hat trick.

Manchester City kept their mini revival going with a fine 4-3 reverse at Swindon. Blackburn travelled to Leicester's, Filbert Street and came away with maximum points but Oldham suffered a home defeat at the hands of Birmingham and now find themselves in the Divisions danger zone.

If goals provide entertainment then this happened in Division 3 where Aldershot shared the spoils with Northampton in a 4-4 thriller. Leaders Sunderland went down 2-1 at Nottingham County. Bury, fresh from their Littlewoods Cup success managed to keep the momentum going at Doncaster and Blackpool salvaged a scoreless draw at Ian Greaves' talented Mansfield. Preston finished all square at 1-1 with visitors Chester and Wigan got back to winning ways against Rotherham. In Division 4 Asa Hartfords Stockport grabbed a point at Burnley where ex Wanderer Wayne Entwistle scored for the visitors. Even the heroics of Rochdales keeper Keith Welch failed against Cardiff where the home team wrapped up the points in the last minute. Leaders Wolves had to come from a goal down against our mid week apponents Newport to win 2-1 and today's visitors Leyton Orient proved too strong for Halifax to claim second spot on goal difference.

BOLTON...1 SWANSEA...1

Steve Thompson got Bolton off the hook with a dramatic injury-time equaliser.

It looked as though stylish Swansea would hold on for three points as they withstood long periods of pressure by rampant Wanderers.

But Thompson struck a curling 25-yard free-kick into the corner of the net to salvage a point.

Star striker Allon took his tally to six goals in as many games with a spectacular volley to put Swansea in front early on.

GUEST SPOT

RAY POINTER
EX-BURNLEY & ENGLAND

This weeks personality initially takes us back to the days when our dads would tell us about the 'old fashioned' centre for 'rads (forwards).

If you were to ask Nat Lofthouse he could rattle off their names in alphabetical order, yet nowadays there seems to be the odd good 'un.

Our guest, Ray Pointer - 'the blond bomber' first signed professional forms for Burnley at 21. He said, "I was a late starter in the game having first to serve national service. You might say I did a job for my country first."

On arrival at Turf Moor he found competition from Boltonian Bill Holden and Albert Shackleton and Ray considered himself lucky in the fact that there was no regular No. 9 at the time. He modestly said, "I just happened to be in the right place at the right time."

But he took his chance and it wasn't long before he was handed the centre forward's jersey and wore it with pride he's that sort of person.

Reflecting on the Bolton-Burnley 'Derby' games in the First Division he grinned, "I used to like playing at Bolton — and remember it well — they had a centre half called John Higgins and you get plenty of kicks ON and OFF the ball!

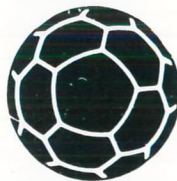

John was a big lad and a bit slow on the turn but it was a long way round him and that's why I was so fast!

He speaks of Nat as one of footballs gentlemen and one who gave 100% but Ray considered himself to be one of the Jackie Milburn type, not surprising being a Geordie. He said, "I wasn't a brilliant footballer but did the job where it mattered."

Nowadays Ray is passing on all his knowledge to the youngsters at Bury as Youth Team Coach. In his days, clubs would have as many as fifteen paid apprentices but changes in football have forced clubs to utilise the Governments Youth Training Scheme. He explained, "In my era apprentices served five years but nowadays lads have by and large to produce the goods in two." But the scheme can work. Just ask Nicky Brookman and watch out for Mike Jefferies, a budding Allan Clarke, who is progressing through the Burnden ranks.

Ray Pointer is one who served his country twice — in national and international service.

Commercial Comment...

Landlord Kevin Ingham had the surprise of his life when the Nightline Draw took place at Kevin's pub the Fox and Stork, on Halliwell Road, Bolton, because one of Kevin's regulars drew out his number and Kevin became £100 richer.

Kevin's taken quite a bit of stick off the regulars this week but commented "I thought somebody was pulling my leg when our book was pulled out, but when my name was called out it was unbelievable."

Nightline is a 50p weekly draw, open to pubs and clubs only, with a chance to win £100 every week day, plus plenty of consolation prizes. Is your local in Nightline? If not, ask your landlord to ring the Commercial Dept. 24518 and then you can have the chance to win £100 each week day.

Today's Lifeline Draw will take place at half-time.

FLASH BACK

5 YEARS AGO. 6th November, 1982.

The Wanderers problems got worse as a crowd of 4879, the lowest for 35 years, saw Shrewsbury win 4-1 at Burnden.

Paul Petts opened the scoring two minutes from half time and further increased their lead in the 58th minute. Four minutes later Wayne Williams smashed home a shot in front of a wide open goal and eight minutes from time Steve Cross scored their fourth.

Bolton's consolation came three minutes from the end when Tony Henry fired home a penalty after Steve Ogrizovic had bundled Wayne Foster over. The result left the Wanderers joint bottom of the second division with Derby County both having eight points from thirteen games.

10 YEARS AGO. 5th November, 1977.

Coincidentally five years ago this weekend the Wanderers faced todays visitors Orient. The game took place at Brisbane Road and the Londoners took the lead in the 38th minute thanks to defender Bill Roffey. Bolton's equaliser came in the 57th minute from a Roy Greaves penalty and they were unlucky not to land both points in an exciting finish. Substitute, Paul Jones, headed only inches wide and Alan Waldron struck goalkeeper John Jackson from point blank range.

15 YEARS AGO. 4th November, 1972.

The Wanderers went to the top of the third division with a 1-0 win over Chesterfield at Saltergate. The visitors were well on top for most of the game but the winner came in only the 6th minute when Stuart Lee rifled home. Bolton signed ex Bury winger Tommy Claxton on a month's trial after the winger had spent the last four years playing in South Africa with Cape Town.

11th November, 1972. Bristol Rovers were beaten 2-0 at Burnden with heavy rain and strong winds making things difficult. Stuart Lee opened the scoring in the 57th minute, steering the ball home from close range, five minutes later John Byrom grabbed his tenth goal of the season to give Bolton a one point lead at the top.

RESERVES NEWS

ROTHERHAM UNITED RES 5 BOLTON WANDERERS RES 0 27th October, 1987.

The reserves went down to their heaviest defeat of the season, failing to score on their travels for the first time, as Rotherham struck five on a heavy Millmoor pitch.

A couple of motorway hold ups saw the team arrive with only twenty minutes to kick off although the home side's first goal didn't come until the 25th minute.

Wanderers 'keeper Ryan Price attempted to parry a Dave Tomlinson shot but unfortunately saw the ball slip out of his grasp and into the net.

Simon Thompson headed United's second goal and four minutes from half time Paul Haycock netted from close range seconds after hitting the post in another move.

Ian Stevens and Trevor Morgan had been the closest to chalking a goal up for Bolton but at half time Morgan was replaced through injury.

Despite an early flurry from Bolton, it was Rotherham who continued to run the mid-field, and in the 57th minute Mark Ash was allowed too much room to weave his way through the middle to score United's fourth.

Ian Dennis scored the fifth five minutes later with a shot that went in off the post although Bolton did create a few openings late in the game.

Ian Stevens shot over the bar from 35 yards, with the keeper stranded, after United's defence had given the ball away, and Neil Whatmore headed wide from a Derek Booth cross.

The final chance of the game fell to Ian Stevens, who was put into the clear by Neil Whatmore, only to see United 'keeper Giles Newcombe save well at his feet. Stevens took a knock in the incident and had to leave the field leaving the Wanderers to complete the game with ten men.

Today we welcome Leyton Orient, our friends from London and although things might not be going too well in the capital these days, with falling share prices, kerb crawling football managers and of course 'Eastenders', Orient are doing very nicely.

Frank Clark, the Orient manager has done a fine job with the O's and so far this season they are flying high around the top of the division and also leading the goal scoring charts with Rochdale feeling the full force, going away from Brisbane Road with a 8-0 thrashing.

Next week we travel down the road to Burnley in what promises to be a F.A. Cup cracker, certainly there could be a gate of over 10,000. Two ex-Wanderers Ray Deakin and George Oghani will be gunning to get one over on their old club, while Derek Scott will be trying to knock his former club out of the Cup.

The F.A. Cup comes as a welcome break from the pressures of League football and also offers opportunities of a good Cup run and maybe a good draw against one of the big boys. Non-league teams always seem to show up well in the Cup and season after season giant killing goes on. Everybody remembers how well Chorley went on last season, beating Wolves and then taking Preston to a replay, next week Chorley entertain Hartlepool and best wishes go out to them in their bid to produce another shock result.

On changing the subject slightly, what a beauty from Thommo last weekend to salvage a point against Swansea. Nobody these days can afford to leave Burnden early unless they wish to miss out on the late late show. At the end of the season these valuable points could prove priceless in our fight for promotion. It was good to see Trevor Morgan come on in the second half, returning from injury. Lets hope it's not too long before 'Tank' (as he is nicknamed by a section of the crowd) is finding the back of the net again.

Burnden Park News

Wanderers Youth 0 Hull City Youth 1 2nd November, 1987

Hopes of a successful campaign in the in the F.A. Youth Cup came unstuck at the 1st round stage here at Burnden Park on Monday in the most disappointing fashion.

The Bolton boys did just about everything bar score, dominating play for long periods but losing to a goal after 60 minutes when Hull defender Jason Mayberry converted the visitors' only real scoring chance of the game.

Wanderers were on top throughout the first half when Hull had goalkeeper David Clemenson to thank for keeping them in the game. Clemenson made two terrific saves from long distance shots by Wanderers midfielder Ian Callaghan and managed to push a Derek Booth shot round the post.

But Mark Raven came closest to scoring with a header which hit the bar and bounced back into the keeper's arms.

Despite enjoying long periods of attacking dominance, the Bolton youngsters just failed to snatch the equaliser they deserved - Booth being unluckiest of all when his shot was cleared off the line.

Team: Price, Spooner, O'Brien, Still, Callaghan, Jackson, Banks, Gaskell, Raven, Jeffrey, Booth, subs Roberts and Halligan.

H.B. Junior Whites

H.B. Junior Whites members will get an insight into the world's fastest sport at their meeting on Monday, November 9th, in the Burnden Executive Club starting at 6.30 pm.

Special guests are players and officials from Trafford Metros ice hockey team led by Canadian player/coach Don Jamieson. The youngsters will see video film of the Metros in high speed action and have the chance to question players about the game which is currently enjoying a new book in Britain.

NOTEBOOK

GOLDEN OLDIES!

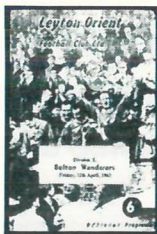

12th April, 1963. Today we reproduce the programme from the only first division game played between the Wanderers and Orient at Brisbane Road.

This took place on Good Friday afternoon with Orient rooted firmly at the bottom with 15 points from 32 games. Bolton were in 17th place with 26 points from 30 games, above both Manchester clubs by the way, and were after points to improve their away record which was the worst in the first division.

Things started badly for Bolton when 'keeper Eddie Hopkinson had to leave the field injured in only the second minute. He recovered to reclaim his place in the 20th minute and kept a clean sheet, the first of the season away from home, as the Wanderers won 1-0.

The winner came from the penalty spot, Dennis Butler beating amateur 'keeper Mike Pinner, the award coming after Wyn Davies had been brought down by Eddie Lewis.

The following day Bolton lost 2-1 at Manchester City in which Butler missed a penalty, and on Easter Monday, Orient gained revenge with a 1-0 win at Burnden.

REFLECTIONS!

Orient make their 16th visit to Burnden Park today, their last being in January 1985 when a scoreless draw resulted, the game also being the last for the Wanderers under the managership of John McGovern.

The Londoners first visited Burnden in December 1908 with Bolton winning a second division game 2-0 thanks to a couple of first half goals from Billy Hughes. Orient were then playing under the name of Clapton Orient and the following April the Wanderers won again by 2-0 in London.

Since then Orient have managed just two victories here, in 1962/63 by 1-0 in the only first division encounter between the clubs, and in 1970/71 also by 1-0 thanks to a Barrie Fairbrother goal.

The Wanderers have also won only twice on their visit's to Orient, firstly in 1909 as already mentioned, and in 1962/63.

More recently our encounters in the third division have produced some exciting games. In November 1983 the Wanderers won 3-2 at Burnden. Gerry McElhinney gave Bolton the lead before Kevin Godfrey equalised just before half time. Wayne Foster restored the Wanderers lead, and Warren Joyce hit a third goal in the 70th minute. Keith Houchen scored Orient's second goal from the penalty spot on the stroke of full time after they had been reduced to ten men when Mark McNeil was sent off for a foul on Steve Thompson.

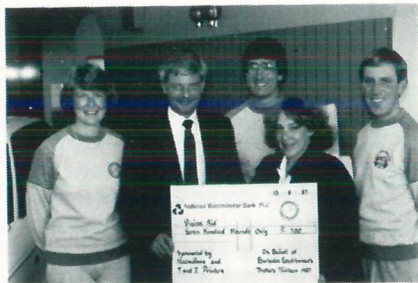

OUT & ABOUT

CHARITY BOOST!

Local charity "Vision Aid", which helps blind and partially sighted children, are better off by £700 after the fourth annual Trotters Thirteen organised by the Wanderers running club The Burnden Road Runners.

Our picture shows Lesley Green, chairman of Vision Aid, receiving the cheque from Paul Hoinville, sales manager of sponsors McMillans. Also in the picture are club secretary Gretta Rainford, race organiser Dave Bishop and club chairman Mel Hatchman. The provisional date for next years race is the 10th April — a week before the London Marathon.
